OPTIVOR ACHIEVES WOMAN-OWNED STATUS

Annapolis Junction, MD – Optivor Technologies, LLC announced it has achieved Woman-Owned status, and qualifies as a Woman-Owned Small Business (WOSB). This status enables Optivor to compete for Federal state & local set-aside opportunities. Specifically, Optivor will assist Federal agencies in meeting their small business, and WOSB procurement objectives.

According to Dearest E. Chandler, Optivor Director, “Optivor has a rich history in telecommunications, and our customer base is relying on diversity for continued growth. Optivor’s operations will continue to operate under our established quality process, so our clients will continue to receive our commitment to an excellent customer experience.”

For the past few years, Dearest Chandler has been building and refining Optivor’s quality management plan and quality programs, along with defining operational procedures. Ms. Chandler has a Masters in Technical Management, and will play a critical role in defining Optivor’s future.

Chandler added, “We are especially proud to achieve this status, and we are confident our customers will be very pleased with this announcement. Additionally, this opens up new opportunities for us to pursue.”
